

Interested in Organizing?

We'd love to have you as a member of NAPO-NE!

Here's how to join!

About Us

NAPO-New England is dedicated to increasing the respect for and public awareness of the professional organizing industry; and providing resources, support and education for our members.

NAPO-NE meetings are held on the second Monday of the month from 6:45 to 9:00 (except July) at the Embassy Suites, 550 Winter Street, Waltham, MA. Members attend free!

Membership Benefits

- You can network with professional organizing colleagues and keep in touch with the organizing community
- Your business will be featured on the "Locate an Organizer" page of our website, making it easy for clients to find professional organizers in their local area
- By attending our monthly meetings and professional development seminars, you will hear from speakers on a variety of topics relevant to the organizing industry and your business development
- You can take advantage of "Members-Only" resources including:
 - Free monthly chapter meetings
 - Discounts on our events including the New Organizer Workshop and Professional Development Seminars
 - Buddy Program and Success Groups to help you connect with your colleagues
 - Media library that allows you to borrow books and CDs, including recordings from past NAPO Conferences
 - Member compiled Resource List and Charitable Organization List

How to Join

For more information, go to www.napo-newengland.com. Under Join NAPO-NE you can check out Membership information and benefits, read the NAPO Code of Ethics, and learn about our New Organizer Workshops. From here you can also apply for membership. Go to the Regular Membership option to apply online, or print an application.

To join NAPO New England, you must first be a member of NAPO. For more information go to www.napo.net, under Who is NAPO, check out Why Join.

The Organizing Authority®